Joshua Chapter 6

1. The battle of Jericho wasn't really a battle. It was a victory given to the Israelites and they just needed to obey and trust that God is sovereign.
 - a. When is it easy for you to trust the God is sovereign? When is it most difficult?
 - b. When things don't make sense, do you question God or your own understanding/faith?
2. God displayed His power and glory at Jericho by provided victory in an unconventional way.
 - a. Where have you seen God display His power and glory in an uncommon way in your life?
 - b. How did this affect your faith and walk with Christ?
3. God used Jericho as a time to build patience, trust, and obedience in the Israelites.
 - a. Why was this an important lesson for this generation of Israelites to learn?
 - b. What could've been the danger(s) if God would have allowed them to fight and win through military tactics and force?
4. Many times, the battle of Jericho is used to teach that the walls (struggles) in your life will fall when you trust God.
 - a. Why is this a misapplication of the main lesson in this story?
 - b. How do you explain the walls in our lives that never crumble?
 - c. If God is going to protect us, why are there some people that get hurt or even die?
